Today our Historical Journey Through Church Music takes us back to the basics...hymns. Hymns were to be sung by God's people for Praise to Him; and to help burn His words into our hearts and minds. While there were many early American hymn writers, Baylus Benjamin

"B.B." McKinney (1886-1952) was one of the most prolific and influential composing over 150 hymns. Dubbed "The Father of American Church Music", B.B. McKinney was an American singer, song writer, teacher and music educator from Louisiana. We will experience some of his hymns today to honor the "Hims" of hymn writers. Join us next Sunday as we honor the "Hers" of hymn writers when we experience music from the "Queen of Gospel Song Writers", Fanny Crosby.

"Pass the Toolbox" Campaign

The Habitat toolbox will be on the table as you leave each week during November for contributions of money and/or prayers.
